L. GUIDANCE ON WHEN AN EVENT/INFORMATION HAS OCCURRED

1. The Company may be confronted with the question as to when an event/information can be said to have occurred for making disclosures to the stock exchanges
2. In certain instances, the answer to above question would depend upon the stage of discussion, negotiation or approval and in other instances where there is no such discussion, negotiation or approval required viz. in case of natural calamities, disruptions etc., the answer to the above question would depend upon the timing when the listed entity became aware of the event/information.

- 2.1. In the former, the events/information can be said to have occurred upon receipt of approval of the Board e.g. further issue of capital by rights issuance and in certain events/information after receipt of approval of both i.e. Board and shareholders.

However, considering the price sensitivity involved, for certain events e.g. decision on declaration of dividends etc., disclosure shall be made on receipt of approval of the event by the Board pending shareholder's approval.

In case in-principle approval or approval to explore (which is not final approval) is given by the Board of Directors, the same shall not require disclosure under regulation 30 of the LODR Regulations.

- 2.2. In the latter, the events/information can be said to have occurred when the Company becomes aware of the events/information, or as soon as, an officer of
