Policy on Materiality of Related Party Transactions and Dealing with Related Party Transactions

(As approved by the Audit Committee / Board of Directors at its Meeting held on November 5, 2014, February 6, 2019 and October 28, 2021)

POLICY ON MATERIALITY OF RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONSAND*DEALING WITH RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

I. PREAMBLE:

As per the business model of Zydus Wellness Ltd. (the “Company” or “ZWL”), the Company enters into transactions with related parties as defined in this Policy (“Related Party Transactions” or “RPTs”) for various purposes as provided under section 188(1) of the Companies Act, 2013, (“the Act”) as may be amended, from time to time

The Company recognizes that certain RPTs may have potential conflicts of interest and such transactions should be carried out at fair values and on an arm's length basis.

The Board of Directors (“Board”) of the Company has adopted Policy on Materiality of Related Party Transactions and Dealing with Related Party Transactions (“Policy”) upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee and the Policy includes the materiality, threshold and the manner of dealing with RPTs in compliance with the requirements of section 188 of the Act and regulation 23 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (“the Listing Regulations”). Any amendment from time to time in the Policy shall be considered by the Board based on the recommendation of the Audit Committee.

The Policy applies to the transactions between the Company and one or more related parties. It provides framework for governance and reporting of RPT, including material RPTs.

The Policy shall be subject to periodic review and updated by the Board at an interval not exceeding three years from the date of its previous review/approval.

II. OBJECTIVES:

This Policy is intended to ensure due and timely identification, approval, disclosure and reporting of transactions between the Company and any of its related parties in compliance with the applicable laws and regulations as may be amended from time to time.

The provisions of this Policy are designed to govern the approval process and disclosure requirements to ensure the transparency in the conduct of RPTs in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders and to comply with the statutory provisions in this regard.

III. DEFINITIONS:

In this Policy, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (a) "Act" shall mean the Companies Act, 2013 and the Rules framed thereunder, including any modifications, amendments, clarifications, circulars, notifications, orders to remove difficulties or re-enactments thereof.
- (b) "Audit Committee (Committee)" means the committee of the Board constituted from time to time under the provisions of regulation 18 of the Listing Regulations and section 177 of the Act.
- (c) "Arm's length transaction" means a transaction between two related parties that are conducted as if they were unrelated, so that there is no conflict of interest. For determination of Arm's length basis, reference is taken from the related provisions of Domestic Transfer Pricing under the Income Tax Act, 1961 for dealing with any related parties in India and International Transfer Pricing guidelines for dealing with any related parties, where such related party is situated outside India.
- (d) "Associate Company", means any other company, in which the Company has a significant influence, but which is not its subsidiary company and includes a joint venture company.

Explanation-For the purposes of this clause, "significant influence" means Control of at least twenty per cent of total share capital or of business decisions under an agreement.

- (e) "Board" means the Board of Directors as defined under the Act.

- Notwithstanding the above, a transaction involving payments made to a Related Party with respect to brand usage or royalty shall be considered material if the transaction(s) to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceed five percent of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company as per the last audited financial statements of the Company.
- (j) Further, transaction with a related party shall be construed to include single transaction or a group of transactions in a contract.
- (k) "Office or Place of Profit", if any, means any office or place-
- i. where such office or place is held by a Director, if the Director while holding it receives from the Company anything by way of remuneration over and above the remuneration to which he is entitled as a Director, by way of salary, fee, commission, perquisites, any rent-free accommodation, or otherwise;

- ii. where such office or place is held by an individual other than a Director or by any Firm, Private Company or other body corporate, if the individual, firm, private company or body corporate while holding it receives from the company anything by way of remuneration, salary, fee, commission, perquisites, any rent-free accommodation, or otherwise; in the Company, its subsidiary Company or associate Company at a monthly remuneration exceeding two and half lakh rupees.

- (l) “Ordinary course of business” means the usual transactions, customs and practices undertaken by the Company to conduct its regular business operations and activities, in furtherance of the Company’s business objectives, and includes all such activities, which the Company can undertake as provided in the Memorandum and the Articles of Association. The Board and the Committee may lay down principles for determining the ordinary course of business in accordance with statutory requirements and other industry practices and guidelines.
- (m) "Policy" means this Policy on materiality of Related Party Transactions and dealing with Related Party Transactions.
- (n) "Relative" shall mean "relative" as defined in section 2(77) of the Act.
- (o) "Related Party (ies)" mean such individual or entity as defined as related party under section 2(76) of the Act read with rules framed thereunder and regulation 2(1)(zb) of the Listing Regulations.
- (p) "Related Party Transactions" (“RPTs”) mean any transaction, directly or indirectly, involving any related party which is a transfer of resources, services or obligations between a Company and related party, regardless of whether a price is charged or not and a "transaction" with a related party shall be construed to include a single transaction or a group of transactions in a contract.

Words and expressions used and not defined in the Policy shall have the same meanings respectively assigned to them in the Act and / or the Listing Regulations.

IV. IDENTIFICATION OF RELATED PARTIES:

Every Director and KMP will be responsible for providing a declaration in the prescribed format containing the following information to the Company on an annual basis:

Every Director and KMP will also be responsible to update the Company Secretary of any changes in the above relationships, directorships, holdings, interests and / or controls immediately on his / her becoming aware of such changes.

The Company Secretary shall be responsible to maintain an updated database of information pertaining to Related Parties reflecting details of –

1. All Directors and KMP;
2. All individuals, partnerships firms, companies and other persons as declared and updated by Directors and KMP;
3. Company's holding company, subsidiary companies and associate companies;
4. Subsidiaries of holding company;
5. Directors and KMP of the holding company or their Relatives;
6. All Zydus Wellness Group entities; and
7. Any other entity which is a Related Party as defined under section 2(76) of the Act read with 2(1)(zb) of the Listing Regulations.

The database shall be updated whenever necessary and shall be reviewed at least once a year jointly by the Company Secretary and the Chief Financial Officer. The functional / Business Heads / Chief Financial Officer / Company Secretary / shall have access to the updated database.

Every Director, KMP, Functional / Business Heads / Chief Financial Officer will be responsible for providing prior notice to the Company Secretary of any potential RPTs. They will also be responsible for providing additional information about the transaction that the Board / Committee may request, for being placed before the Committee and the Board.

The Company Secretary will inform to the Directors and KMP, the suggested details and list of records and supporting documents which are required to be provided along with the notice of the proposed transaction.

V. REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF RPTs, INCLUDING MATERIAL RPTs:

All RPTs shall be subject to the prior approval of the Committee, whether at a meeting or by way of a resolution by circulation or through electronic mode. A member of the Committee who has a potential interest in any RPT will not remain present at the meeting or will abstain from discussion and voting on such RPT and shall not be counted in determining the presence of a quorum when such transaction is considered.

All material RPTs, shall require prior approval of the shareholders through resolution and all related parties shall not vote to approve such resolution, irrespective of whether the entity is a party to the particular RPT or not.

However, any transaction, including material RPTs, between the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary companies, whose accounts are consolidated with the Company and placed before the shareholders, at a general meeting for approval, shall not require approval of shareholders.

Following RPTs shall not require any separate approval under this Policy:

1. Any transaction pertaining to appointment and remuneration of Directors and KMPs that require approval of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee of the Company and the Board.
2. Transactions under specific provisions of the Act, e.g. loans, investments, guarantees, etc. with or in wholly owned subsidiary companies or other Related Parties.
3. Payment of dividend.
4. Transactions involving corporate restructuring, such as buy-back of shares, capital reduction, merger, demerger, hive-off etc. which are approved by the Board and carried out in accordance with specific provisions of the Act or the Listing Regulations.
5. Contribution towards corporate social responsibility, as approved by the CSR Committee and the Board.

VI. CONSIDERATION BY THE COMMITTEE, WHILE APPROVING RPTs:

While considering any transaction, the Committee shall take into account all relevant facts and circumstances, including the terms of the transaction, the business purpose of the transaction, the benefits to the Company and any other relevant matters.

Prior to the approval, the Committee shall, inter-alia, consider the following factors to the extent relevant to the transaction:

- a. Whether the terms of the RPTs are in the ordinary course of the Company's business and are on an arm's length basis;
- b. The business reasons for the Company to enter into the RPT and the nature of alternative transactions, if any;
- c. Whether the RPT includes any potential reputational risks that may arise as a result of or in connection with the proposed Transaction; and
- d. Whether the RPT would affect the independence or present a conflict of interest for any Director or KMP of the Company, taking into account the size of the transaction, the overall financial position of the Director, KMP or other Related Party, the direct or indirect nature of the Director's interest, KMP's or other Related Party's interest in the transaction and the ongoing nature of any proposed relationship and any other factors, the Committee deems relevant.

While considering the arm's length nature of the transaction, the Committee shall take into account the facts and circumstances as were applicable at the time of entering into the transaction with the Related Party. The Committee shall take into consideration that subsequent events (i.e. events after the initial transactions have commenced) like evolving business strategies / short term commercial decisions to improve / sustain market share, changing market dynamics, local competitive scenario, economic / regulatory conditions affecting the global / domestic industry, may impact profitability but may not have a bearing on the otherwise arm's length nature of the transaction.

VII. APPROVAL BY CIRCULAR RESOLUTION OF THE COMMITTEE:

In the event the Company management determines that it is impractical or undesirable to wait until a meeting of the Committee to enter into a RPT, such transaction may be approved by the Committee by way of circular resolution in accordance with this Policy and statutory provisions for the time being in force. Any such approval must be ratified by the Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

VIII. APPROVAL BY THE BOARD:

If the Committee determines that RPT should be brought before the Board, or if the Board in any case elects to review any such matter or it is mandatory under any law for Board to approve the RPT, then the Board shall consider and approve the RPT at a meeting and the considerations set forth above shall apply to the Board's review and approval of the matter, with such modification as may be necessary or appropriate under the circumstances.

Approval of Board will be required, at a meeting, for any transaction with Related Parties which are either not in ordinary course of business or not on an arm's length basis.

IX. STANDING PRE-APPROVAL / OMNIBUS APPROVAL BY THE COMMITTEE:

In the case of frequent / regular / repetitive transactions which are in the normal course of business of the Company, the Committee may grant standing pre-approval / omnibus approval. While granting such approval the Audit Committee shall satisfy itself of the need for the omnibus approval and that same is in the interest of the Company. The omnibus approval shall specify the following:

- a. Name of the related party,
- b. Nature of the transaction,
- c. Period of the transaction,
- d. Maximum amount of the transactions that can be entered into,
- e. Indicative base price / current contracted price and formula for variation in price, if any and
- f. Such other conditions as the Committee may deem fit.

Such transactions will be deemed to be pre-approved and may not require any further approval of the Committee for each specific transaction unless the price, value or material terms of the contract or arrangement have been varied / amended. Any proposed variations / amendments to these factors shall require a prior approval of the Committee.

Further, where the need of the RPT cannot be foreseen and all prescribed details are not available, Committee may grant omnibus approval subject to the value per transaction not exceeding Rs. 1/- Crore (Rupees One Crore only). The details of such transaction shall be reported at the next meeting of the Committee for ratification. Further, the Committee shall on an annual basis review and assess such transactions including the limits to ensure that they are in compliance with this Policy. The omnibus approval shall be valid for a period of one year and fresh approval shall be obtained after the expiry of one year.

X. TRANSACTIONS NOT IN ORDINARY COURSE OF BUSINESS OR NOT ON AN ARM'S LENGTH BASIS:

All RPTs which are not in the Ordinary Course of business and / or not on an Arms' Length basis shall also require the prior approval of the shareholders through resolution and all the Related Parties, shall abstain from voting in favour of such resolution, whether the related party is a party to the particular contract or not.

XI. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS NOT PREVIOUSLY APPROVED:

In the event the Company becomes aware of a RPT that has not been approved or ratified under this Policy, the transaction shall be placed as promptly as practicable before the Committee or Board or the Shareholders as may be required in accordance with this Policy for review and ratification.

The Committee or the Board or the Shareholders shall consider all relevant facts and circumstances respecting such transaction and shall evaluate all options available to the Company, including but not limited to ratification, revision, or termination of such transaction, and the Company shall take such action as the Committee/Board deems appropriate under the circumstances.

XII. DISCLOSURE AND REPORTING OF RPTs:

Every (i) material contract or (ii) contract which is not in ordinary course of business and / or not on an arm's length basis, entered into by the Company with the Related Party shall be referred to in the Board's report to the shareholders along with justification for entering into such transaction. The Company Secretary and the Chief Financial Officer shall be responsible for such disclosure. The Company Secretary shall also make necessary entries in the Register of Contracts required to be maintained under the Act.

Details of all material RPTs shall be disclosed to the stock exchanges on a quarterly basis along with compliance report on corporate governance.

The Company shall submit within 30 days from the date of publication of its standalone and consolidated financial results for the half year, disclosures of RPTs on a consolidated basis, in the format specified in the relevant accounting standards for annual results to the stock exchange(s) and publish the same on its website.

XIII. SCOPE LIMITATION:

In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Policy and of the Listing Regulations / Act or any other statutory enactments, rules, the provisions of such Listing Regulations / Act or statutory enactments, rules shall prevail over this Policy.

XIV. DISSEMINATION OF POLICY:

Either this Policy or the important provisions of this Policy shall be disseminated to all functional and operations employees and other concerned persons of the Company and shall be hosted on the intra-net and website of the Company and web link thereto shall be provided in the annual report of the Company.

XV. REVIEW OF POLICY:

The Company Secretary and in his absence the Chief Financial Officer shall amend this Policy consequent to changes in applicable laws and regulations. Any such change will be placed before the next Committee and Board meeting.
